“ Please express my condolences to the Jack Scheimreif family. I haven't seen Jack in a great many years, but I used to live two doors down (other side of McKeen's) from the family on Hooker Street. I knew his mother and father very well (for a little kid) and had a secret crush on his sister Hope, who reminded me of a movie star. I also recall his brother, Donald. His Dad had a great garden in the yard between his house and the Salmons's. His niece, Deena Delores Beck lived a couple of blocks away (Howard Street?). Although she was a little younger than me, we used to play together when she'd visit her grandparents.

I moved to California in 1976, but I try to keep up with things back home through the Burlington County Times. I just retired this month myself.

The Jack I knew was a quiet, honest, hardworking man who reflected the values he was brought up with. I wish those values were more commonplace today. As a veteran of World War II, he was a member of our greatest generation. His passing is a loss to all of us.

Sincerely,

Gerry Craft
