“ Cousin John----I cannot believe that you are not here--you were supposed to live a long life, get the big horse that you were dreaming of and ride off into the sunset! You were a gentle giant of a man; hardworking, funny, easygoing and a great father. You were the brother that I never had growing up and I can't remember my childhood without Gail and you in it--what wonderful memories. My heart is so heavy --the world lost a great person and I am so lucky to have shared so many happy times with you. My deepest sympathies are with your children and granddaughter---you loved them all so much and were so proud of them--you will never be forgotten. God bless you. Love, your cousin, Michele##imported-begin##Michele Karpiak-Molloy##imported-end##

“ I love you Dad more than you will ever know you were my hero. You had a way of bringing laughter and joy to everyone around you weather they really understood the nonsense you were saying or not. You loved horses and your dream was to one day be able to ride. You have no idea how go lucky of a person you were and the impact you made on peoples lives, everyone that met you had nothing but love for you because of how silly you were. Thank you so much for bestowing upon me all the wonderful lessons, love, and traits from you. I love you.
