“ Joe, you were the love of my life and father of our daughter Noelle. You were rough early on but as they say you were a big teddy bear. I know you remember when i was pregnant you had the cravings and we would get on the bidke at 8 months prenant and go to Seaside for a sausage, pepper and onion sandwich for you, LOL. Im sorry you didnt know how to love the ones who care as in family. But you had a great following. because you had such a big heart. You left a big hole in my and many people hearts and after all these yeara i am sooo sorry you never got a cance to meet your grandson Aiden. At least you saw him even though only in a pci Honey you will never be forgotten. To this day 11/3/15 i expect to hear that hearty laugh and a call out nowhere. I know you loved me because when i spoke to you on the 13th you told me so, as you said precious as a jewel. 40 years we had and the past all was forgiven. I hope to let Aiden (your first grandson) know all about you. I love you and my tears are still fallomg for you. Im your jewel Im Pearl you gave me that name years ago with our friends. Joe i hope i can come to this site every now and then just to talk to you like we did. Maybe you will hear me, but it will just be good to talk to you. I love your always, Pearl (Cheryl) I hope some day Noelle finds it in her heart to forgive you. and if you have another daughter out there i hope we find her.

“ From the first time that Ron and I met you. I knew you would become a permanent part of our lives and our friends lives. You became our dear friend and part of our extended family instantly. We have so many cherished memories with you. There is a huge void now. Missing you more than words can express. You will always be in our hearts our minds and memories. We will keep you in the present by telling our stories of how many good times we all shared with you. See you on the other side my friend. Dottie xoxo

“ A true Brother and Friend. To, to many good times. Always seemed to make me laugh and when I would catch him out there, his famous sayings was "You know". When we would see his Mother she would always hug me first. And I would tell him, because she loved me more. Never did take that ride to North Jersey for some Hot Dogs. Well my Brother I'll have one for you as well. See you on the other side. R.I.P love ya and thanks for being my friend.
