“ Tracey, my name is Shellam Enlow. I was there that evening when this fatality occurred. I wanted to bring your husband back to life, instead I was escorted away from him as he laid face down on the Earth still. Just so you know, aside from bystanders. He did not die alone. I gave him a kiss on his skull as he laid there between those two graveyards and whispered for him to rest in peace. I laid a white vase filed with roses at the same place you placed your synthetic flowers and letter to him. He is in heaven and he still loves you and will always be forever yours. I am sorry this happened and pray that your family will embrace his life with smiles and live his legacy.

Dear Shellam, what a beautiful note to comfort my nephew's wife! I am sure he is in heaven and I am in awe of your kindness that you showed my nephew when he left this world...it is a comfort that someone was there...God bless you for your kindness...means much to all of us but most of all Tracey his wife.

“ To the Prince Family:

My deepest sincerest prayer and love go out to you and your family during this incredibly sorrowful time. I only hope that you continue to keep his memory alive and celebrate his life. Dom, please stay focused on your future plans and let your dad's memory drive you to be something great and meaningful. Know that he is always a part of you and will be fondly remembered by all.. Although I did not know him, I too lost my dad suddenly when I was your age, and it made me become a stronger more determined person, and totally changed my life path forever. Wishing you strength and support during this time in all of your lives.

“ His love for his family, his country, and his friends were unbreakable. I met Joe because of investigative journalism. I was blessed to have gotten to know him first as a reader, researcher, then became a close friend. Although his body is gone, his spirit remains. His legacy of honor, respect, and intensive research and loyalty to our country speaks for itself. I dedicate this to you Joe.

I believe this explains Joe to a tee:

"Unconditional Love"

*Never a truer word could be spoken
Than the word
That doesn't have to be
For the heart in truth
Says it all.*

I will miss you my friend.

“ Joe was one of a kind. He was kind hearted and understanding. At times he could be a bit hard headed. We met late one night by chance and from the door we hit it off. We seemed to have had several things in common. Family , food , cars , and motorcycles. We didn't spend much time together but when we did it was quality time. He and I compared our political views. (shocker) As well as futuristic plans for our families. Again we didn't know each other for long but grew close quickly. my heart goes out to his boys as well as his ever caring wife. I feel your loss.

“ Joe was one of my favorite customers here at Mt. Holly Powersports.. He had just come in earlier on Saturday and we talked like usual. We talked about this crazy, cold weather we've had and how we couldn't wait for it to get warmer.. I would always see Joe out and about and we would always chat. Christmas Eve we saw each other and he was telling me about his accident he had over the summer and I told him he was lucky to survive it and he just looked at me and said "it wasn't my time." I can't believe it was you.. I'm going to miss seeing you around and our chats. If only I knew Saturday would be the last time seeing you in the store.. Just glad you died doing what you loved- riding. May you ride in peace Joe. Love & prayers to your family during this heartbreaking time.

“ My love and prayers to Tracie, Angelo and Dominick. Brian and I were the youngest and when my brother Gilbert, and Adrienne had to get on the bus to go to school we got to play. But we all grow up and grow apart. Later in life we reconnected and shared memories of being 5 years old again. We laughed, we ranted about our lives, we talked about how much we loved our families, especially our kids and we discussed "theories" about 9/11. We will cherish every memory of Brian. "Via on Dios mi Amigo" the thunder is not as loud on the other side. -

My mother Concetta passed away Oct. 4, 2013, she grew Brian up from when he was 10 years old, Brian would visit her at Sacred Heart Cemetery many times a week and it is so ironic that his accident and death happened right in front of that cemetery. My mother has her arms wrapped around her beloved grandson for all eternity - safe forever, RIP Mom and Brian...until we all meet again.

“ Hi, I might as well get this started off - I was Brian's first friend - and enemy - his big sister! I know that Joe had so many friends, touched so many lives. Not perfect - but perfectly himself. We have so many funny stories to tell about him as a kid. He was an inspiration and model for someone who truly lived - and someone we will never forget. He dared more, he cared more, stood up for the truth every chance he could. All my love to Tracie and the boys. I know he is so proud of all 3 of you and will never leave your sides, now more than ever. <3 Auntie Adrienne
