“ What a beautiful, kind and gentle soul. Several of us were gifted to know her very early in our lives. We saw her grow much as we did, experiencing and sharing our journey, friend and confidante. She shared her talents very early in life, many of us have some of her paintings. She was quiet but her faith and convictions ran deep, she loved her family, friends and country. Her beauty and talent had many aspects reaching out to touch your very core. We will miss her and remember her both collectively as a group and more importantly individually. She was a gift that will be treasured and live on in our hearts and fondly remembered whenever we gather. With sympathy and love MWJBDBCM

“ It was very surprising to hear of Joyce's passing. I had seen her painting at Nancy's farm in November and had received a Christmas card from her this past Christmas. I hope that she was taken quickly and painlessly, as quietly as her unimposing, helpful, gentle nature. I see her with other plein air painters painting in a perpetual field full of sun.

“ I still can't believe our good friend and wonderful artist has passed so quickly. The last time I saw her was at the end of November at the Gower farm reception and she seemed fine. She will certainly be missed at our many dinners and painting locations. Rest in peace good friend.

“ It is so hard to find words to express the loss of such a good friend. There are so many memories of years we spent creating art and hanging together in group shows. Joyce was a wonderful person to know! I will miss her kind smiling face and soft spoken words. Sympathy to her family at the loss of a very special person, mother, and friend!

“Hearing about Joyce passing is a shock. Although we haven't had a chance to get together recently, our friendship has always been special. We've painted and created together, lunched together, shared great times and sad times. My heart aches. My heartfelt sympathy to all of her family and friends. We grieve together. My husband, Bruce, feels the same.
