“ *I was thinking today of the time I took Joyce to Yashiva University in my old 62? Ford. We had a real laugh with my car smoking out of every orifice, from under the hood and from out the tailpipe.....She just thought that was the craziest and I guess it was....but we both knew Jesus as our Savior and Lord and we knew everything would be alright. It was a clunker but we went to NY and pulled up next to the Lincoln's and Porsches like we were in charge. She went in seemingly without a worry or concern or any recognition of her handicap. We laughed a bunch but she proved again as she did throughout her life that she was a "brave heart".

“ She was my god mother, my strength, my insides. People keep saying to me that at least she isn't suffering anymore, but why did she have to suffer in the first place? I love her, she has been A part of my life since the day I was born. Now what am I suppose to do without her? I hope the angels know what they have, because a part of me will be missing forever. I love you to the moon and back. I don't know how I'm going to do this thing called life without you.
