“ Dear Ed, Kelly, Toni, Charlie, Kathy & Gay's precious grandchildren. Only having known Gay about 3 years she was the best co-worker ever! We would finish each other sentences or think of something at the same time. Her laugh was contagious. We talked about our families and compared "Grandmom" stories. She loved you all very much and may you find comfort that she will always be with you.##imported-begin##Joyce Rovinsky##imported-end##

“ I will always remember Gay's bright smile and warm and contagious laughter. It was constantly shining through the years. I will never forget her welcoming and warm personality as she helped make our class reunions memorable events. We were classmates at RVRHS as well as Robert Morris. “ Dear Ed, Kelly, Toni, Charlie and Stewart/Cucugliello Families, we have all suffered a great loss when Gay passed, but no one more than you. May your peace come with the knowledge of what a good husband and children you were. Gay's joyous laugh will be the one thing, among many, that I will remember about her. She loved life and all of her family and friends who were in it. May she rest in peace.
