

Julia S Bytheway

June 27, 1943 - November 30, 2016

Julia R. Bytheway of Westampton passed away Wednesday, November 30, 2016 at her home surrounded by her family. She was 73.

Born and raised in Camden, Julia lived in Burlington City for 20 years and in Westampton for the last 16 years. She was a homemaker, who later worked in the cafeteria at Deborah Heart and Lung Center in Browns Mills. She enjoyed sewing and quilting and could be found cheating at crossword puzzles. She was also an avid reader with an impressive Stephen King collection. She loved Sunday dinners and being with her friends and family most of all. Julia could always be seen with a beautiful smile and a listening ear to anyone who wanted to talk. Everyone was always welcome wherever she was, no judgements ever. She had a patriots heart and loved Eagles and Roses.

She is survived by 4 children: son: John Bytheway; 3 daughters: Julie Shuler (Ken) of Beverly, Jennifer Bower (fiancé Ed Kuchnicki Jr.) of Westampton, JoAnn Bytheway (Leslie Scott) of Berlin; 6 grandchildren: Michael Bader, Melody Bower, Pauline Suber, Lindsay Bader, Jesse Bower, Patrick McNally; and a great-granddaughter Trinity Rae Suber. She is also survived by her brother: Charles George (Florence), & 2 sisters: Kathry Printz (late Irv), & Laura Hardman (late Lee). She was also predeceased by her oldest sister Dorothy Evans.
