

Jutta R. Baehr

January 31, 1935 - October 24, 2014

Jutta Ruth Baehr of Westampton, NJ passed away on Friday, October 24, 2014 at the age of 79.

Jutta was born on January 31, 1935 in Stralsund Germany. She lived on the Island of Rügen in the town of Binz. She and her parents fled to Berlin during the Soviet occupation of the Island. Jutta later became an apprentice to a dentist with plans to become a dental technician. During this time she met Julius Baehr, her future father in law. Julius introduced Jutta to his son Theodore, an American Soldier. The two fell in love, married in 1954 and moved to the U.S.

Jutta had many different careers but what she enjoyed most was working beside her father Erich who was the executive chef at Sunnybrook Country Club. She accomplished a lot in her lifetime, but one of her proudest moments was becoming a naturalized citizen of the United States.

The wife of the late Theodore Baehr, Jutta is predeceased by her parents Erich Wulf and Margaret Kuhl Wulf and her son, Ronald Baehr. She is survived by her son, Roger Baehr and daughters Janette Matyjasik and Stephanie Baehr, her granddaughters Melanie, Laura, Julia and Reagan, and her grandsons, Christopher, Alex, Austin, and Eric.

Jutta was a kind and loving woman. She was a wonderful daughter, wife, mother and grandmother and not a day will go by that she will not be missed. Visitation will be Wednesday October the 29th at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High Street, Mount Holly beginning at 5:30pm with a 7:00pm service.
