

Karen Ann Town

November 22, 1955 - September 11, 2021

Karen Ann Town of Hainesport passed away on Saturday, September 11, 2021 at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia. She was 65. Born in Philadelphia, Karen grew up in the Middletown and Langhorne area. She was a longtime Hainesport and Solebury Township resident. Karen was a dedicated mother first and foremost, and she was the owner of A & L Septic Service in Hainesport along with her late husband, Eric. She treasured her children and grandchildren; she embraced every moment with them. Karen also enjoyed reading, travelling and car rides.

The wife of the late Eric, she is survived by 4 children: Sean Town (Dawn Raudenbush) of Lumberton, Jennifer (Greg) Worrell of Lumberton, Amy Town (Tony Kobie) of Sweetwater, & Michelle Lacey of Hainesport; 5 grandchildren: Johnathan Town, Jarred Worrell, Emmie Town, Madison Worrell & Khloe Lacey. The mother-in-law of the late Joseph Lacey, she is also survived by her sister Kathy Foss and brother Daniel Callaghan.

"A mother's love is always with her children. Losing a mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. But her goodness, her caring, and her wisdom live on-like a legacy of love that will always be with you. May that love surround you now and bring you peace." Unknown.

“ I have had the pleasure of knowing Mr. & Mrs. Town and family for approximately the past 15 years, both professionally and privately. I have always thought of Mr. & Mrs. Town to be very unique and special, and can say that the world is a lessor place without them. I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family.
