“ I was away at a funeral in Florida when I read in the paper of Kathy's passing....she always had a big smile and a HUG for me every time she visited the store. She was more than a customer, she became a friend, always asking me about my family and kids, and as I had the challenge of breast cancer, she always offered up love, faith and prayers.

She is the kind of person that makes doing business enjoyable and worthwhile...she always thanked me for being there, .....I will sincerely miss her.....My sympathies go out to her family...I feel like I know you through Kathy telling me about her wonderful family that she was so proud of, so loved, and so thankful for.....

Words cannot express the ache in my heart to not be able to see her again.....

“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 to “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what you are facing God is there to help you get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.

“ Dear Braham family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ I had the pleasure of working with her for several years. We became friends instantly. She was the kindest beautiful giving soul you could ever meet. We considered each other sister's. She had a great sense of humor and always saw the bright side in every situation. Love you my shining angel.
