

Keith Furgus

September 20, 1947 - August 5, 2025

Keith was born in Trinidad and Tobago the eldest son of Jack and Blanche Furgus, brother of Valerie, Kayrene, Kurt and Leslie. In his early teens Keith began his trade in Lithography on the printing press. He was also a pan man in the steel pan band Casablanca until he settled down, and married Jemma Watson and started a family.

Keith immigrated to New York, USA, in the mid seventies and later moved to New Jersey, where he worked and raised his family. In 2001 he moved to sunny Florida, where he lived and worked until he retired in Fort Lauderdale.

Keith enjoyed swimming at the beach, fishing and crabbing, watching football cheering on his beloved Pittsburgh Steelers ! Keith loved to travel within the Caribbean exploring the food and cultures of many islands. He also enjoyed road-trips all across the US and Canada with family and friends.

Keith enjoyed all types of music but always loved his native Soca and Calypso. He enjoyed dancing and liming with friends !

In his later years Keith returned to New Jersey to be cared for by his children and passed away peacefully surrounded by his daughters and loved ones.

Memories of Keith will be forever be cherished by his family.

Keith leaves us to reunite with his mother and father Blanche and Jack, his sister Valerie and nephew Kerwyn.

Keith leaves behind his children Jennie, Gizelle, Jonnele and Kirlon. Grandchildren Jaedyn, Kaelyn, Noelle, Riley, Angel and Madison.

His Sister, Kayrene and brothers Kurt and Leslie. Brother in law Roland Farrell, Son in law, Mike Bird, Nieces and nephews, Rhonda, Andre, Nigel and Khristen and many great nephews and nieces and cousins.

“ A day I will never forget. We to the house for a ten min fix it job and as I finished i noticed a steeler symbol out the corner of my eye and I said to her sister oh that's why Janelle I a a steeler and her sister said no THATS why she's a steeler fan and pointed to dad. I was in total shock and I ended up talking with him for over an hour. He gave me memories of games I had to look up and I consider my self the greatest steeler fan of all time till I met my mentor MR. FURGUS. Rise in power DAD a true steeler fan.
