“ Ken gave me my first job out of college working for EIO. He was a great first boss. I remember every Christmas he would give me bottle of his homemade wine. He also had a funny streak about him. From getting into the office pranks to never letting a joke go. He once made a mistake calling my wife Kathy by mistake. When pulled him aside and told him her name was Lisa he said “well then, I will have to apologize to Kathy then” - then proceeded to call her Kathy with a little wink of the eye. Years later when we would see him - he continued to call her Kathy with a wink and a laugh. In addition to being a great boss, he was also a great father and husband. I will continue to cherish the memories I have of Ken, and will keep the rest of the family in our thoughts and prayers. He leaves behind a great legacy that will continue to burn bright in all those who knew him.

“ Ken was one of a kind. When I had to get back into the working world he was the most wonderful boss. Patient and understanding with my situation as a single parent. I will be forever grateful to him. Rest with the angels Ken.

“ I worked for Mr. Curtis almost 20 years ago and also kept in touch. He was a very nice and funny man. His daughter Brenda and I became friends and continue to be close. I wish Brenda, her children, grandchildren and Ken's sons and their families my condolences. My thoughts are with you all. I am glad Ken lived a happy and full life. He was a lively and exuberant man and will be missed.

Sincerely,
Nancy Kinkade
