

Kenneth Hoyt

May 28, 1938 - April 4, 2026

Kenneth Hoyt of Browns Mills, formerly of Shamong, passed away peacefully on Saturday, April 4, 2026 at Serenity Hospice. He was 87.

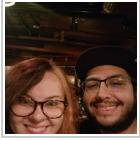

Born in Brooklyn, Ken was a US Navy Veteran and a Mason. He began his career at JFK Airport, where he was a shop steward. He moved to Shamong in 1977 where he held a variety of jobs from warehouse manager to wine salesman. Ken enjoyed hunting and fishing. Some of his fondest memories and best stories came from his yearly hunting trips. He also loved boats, cars, and motorcycles. An avid storyteller, he enjoyed sharing stories from his youth.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Anna and his son Andrew.

Ken is survived by his daughter and son-in-law Wendee and Chris Trefz of Shamong; granddaughters Chloe and Ava and his daughter Susan A. Hoyt of New York.

Funeral Services and cremation will be held privately

Tribute Wall

“ *Condolences from his daughter Mary’s family.
I wish we could have met before you passed.
I know Mary was happy to finally meet you after all these years. ❤️
I hope you have great chats with Grandma Carolita and Papa Joe up there!*

Abigail Newman - April 07 at 02:48 PM