“ Father, I pray for the Orangers family and others in there circle of family and friends who are grieving...

They're hurting for many reasons, and I ask You to help them through this season of loss.

I reach out to You, the Father of compassion and the Source of every comfort, asking You to touch them with Your unfailing love and kindness. Be their God who comforts them as they're going through their struggles, and bring them through the tough things ahead. Come alongside them in their pain, and strengthen them so they'll one day be able to help others who face the same struggles. You're close to people whose hearts are breaking, those who are discouraged and have given up hope. May You who see their troubles and grief respond when they cry out When they're hurting, help them find their joy in You, for it's Your joy that will be their strength. Help them to trust You as their God of hope. Fill them with Your joy, peace, and hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Help them experience the love, joy, and peace that are the results of His life in them, no matter what they're going through. May they sense Your presence in this hour of need. In Jesus' name, Amen.

“ I remember when my boat broke while we were in the ocean and the water was getting rough. I asked uncle Kenny to help me and said hell no I'm getting out of here. I said you can't he replied with starting his motor and driving off. I made out ok and we all joked about it later.
