

Kenn R. Czaplicki

February 12, 1987 - November 24, 2010

Kenn “Ducktape” Czaplicki of Westampton passed away November 24th, 2010 at the age of 23. Kenn is survived by his girlfriend Amanda Stauss. His mother and stepfather, Patty Parker and I.E. “Dusty” Parker, his father, Daniel Czaplicki, his sisters: Melissa Czaplicki and Jenn Foster, step brothers, Kevin and Shaun Parker and his grandmother Eleanor Davis {Ma Puff}; and a paternal grandmother, Nancy Czaplicki.

Funeral Services and interment will be private. Friends and relatives are invited to visit with the family Friday from 6-8PM at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High Street, Mount Holly. Contributions in Kenn’s memory may be made to the charity of the donor’s choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Kenn R. Czaplicki

October 29, 2022 at 11:57 AM

“ Kenn R. Czaplicki

October 29, 2022 at 09:53 AM

“ Kenn was one of Ben's first friends. I think I knew him from the time he was a toddler through first communion through early teenage years in Roebling, NJ. Ben loved him like a brother. I have many happy memories of Kenn. He created a duct tape flower when Ben died that I still have. I lost touch with Kenn and his family years ago. I found out about Kenn's death quite by accident. My condolences to his family and friends - Catherine Riley (Ben Zerrouki)

Catherine Riley - January 11, 2022 at 09:07 AM

“ *Dear Kenny,
Wow It still comes of a shock to me that your actualy gone. You pretty much grew up with my family as another brother, il never forget you and how you just always put a smile on the faces that you saw. You were a wonderful person and you will live on in our hearts forever XoXo I love you duck tape man!###imported-begin###Mason kristi cooper###imported-end###*

January 11, 2011 at 10:22 PM

“ Kenn, Ducktape, lived every day like it was his last. Today we celebrate the vitality of his life and the legacy he has left in our hearts. In life he taught us how to enjoy living; in death he reminds us that life is always too short. Enjoy the ones you love, live life to the fullest, and celebrate each day, each person--and DT will surely do backflips, angelic dreads flapping, somewhere in the afterlife, grinning.

Kenn was like a little brother to me at a very sensitive time in my life, I will never forget him. The way in which he touched the lives of his friends was something rare and amazing; he will be celebrated and missed by many.##imported-begin##Samara Lentz##imported-end##

December 03, 2010 at 06:05 PM

“ We're thankful for the short time we were blessed to have known you, enjoying that infectious smile and that gentle and kind manner you displayed. We miss you and love you always. Our thanks to his parents for bringing him to this world and our thanks to Amanda for loving and introducing him to us. We share your grief and love for him.##imported-begin##Elizabeth Czajka##imported-end##

December 03, 2010 at 11:54 AM

“ Tape, you're the man. So happy I got to meet you. You brought laughter and light everytime I saw you, and that will live on every time I think about you. My condolences to Tape's family and Amanda. I love you Duct Tape!##imported-begin##Taylor##imported-end##

December 02, 2010 at 08:32 PM

“ I will never forget the first time I met you, shorts no shirt and a giant green mohawk. I liked you right away. You were the most unique person I've ever met, and the best friend my son has ever had. The two of you were always laughing and smiling together... and that's how I will remember you laughing and smiling. I love you.##imported-begin##Stacy##imported-end##

December 02, 2010 at 12:59 PM

“ WE ALL WILL MISS YOU AND LOVE YOU AND YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTEN..##imported-begin##christina jones##imported-end##

December 02, 2010 at 12:22 PM