“ RIP Laina. I know how your heart ached for your Dad. We, unfortunately, shared that same pain and feeling of emptiness over losing a parent. Sweet thoughts of you two being reunited. Continuous prayers and thoughts for your sweet boy, Hunter, and your family.

“ Laina and I would find the most exotic flavors of coffee and creamers to try. She was my coffee buddy. I will miss her laugh.

“ When Laina and Kasey were little girls I taught them to pull my sister Lisa's curls "BOING" for hours that day they did that Oh how we all laughed except Lisa of course. She hated anyone touching her hair. Years later Laina and I were talking, she remembered doing this to Lisa again we laughed. Laina always made me laugh. My heart aches for losing you but also for your son, mom and sisters. Please send a cardinal to let us know you are ok.

“ In 2003 Laina and I went to Colorado to pet sit for my sister. Laina knew I was petrified of insects and any kind of creepy bug. We stopped at a McDonalds for a quick bite to eat. Laina got out of the car to throw the trash away and I held both of our large drinks. As she exited the car a dragonfly flew into the car without her knowing it. Here I was holding 2 Large drinks with the windows up and doors shut and the LARGEST dragonfly I had ever seen flying around. I started screaming which made Laina turn around just in time to see the dragonfly land on my shirt. I remember her laughing so hard but she quickly opened the car door to try and help. That's what I want to always remember about her....she always tried to make others happy even at the expense sometimes of her own happiness. RIP...and I wish you could pull my curls just one more time
