She will be missed by several aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ I know it seems like distant past, but I remember well Laurie's years with the youth group of 1st Pres. One of the delights of long ministries is to watch "kids" grow into adults and spread their wings, as I was able to do with Laurie. May her memorial service be a comforting grace and peace to her mother, children (whom I didn't get to know), sister and the whole circle of family and friends. May those become melodies of gratitude and joy that continue to echo through the coming years.
