

Lenore A. Scatuorchio

November 23, 1953 - January 25, 2026

Lenore A. Scatuorchio went home to be with the Lord (and her late son, Stephen F. Sanford) on Jan. 25, 2026.

She was born on November 23, 1953, in Jersey City, NJ to the late John M. and Dorothy K. Scatuorchio, nee Kesby. The family moved to South Jersey in 1960; she settled in a house in Willingboro, where she especially enjoyed the backyard pool and her love of cats.

She is survived by sisters Darcy Law (NC) and her stepson Greg Law (PA); and Jo Biddle (FL); nephew John Biddle and niece Lee Ann Biddle. Also, very special to Lenore was Samantha Murray, who considered her an adopted grandmother.

Lenore described herself as “active, clever, and inquisitive”; at one time she had as many as 20 pen pals! She participated in scouting and church ministry. For years, she was responsible for ordering pamphlets and books for the church foyer. But she was proudest of her 45-year career as a nurse, having graduated from Trenton State College (now The College of New Jersey) with a Bachelor’s Degree in Nursing. She worked as a school nurse, in public health and in hospitals in Philadelphia and Burlington County, ending at Deborah Heart and Lung Center where she was a dedicated Medical ICU nurse.

She kept busy in her retirement, indulging in crafts such as sewing, making jewelry, crocheting and quilting. She even knew how to refinish furniture! In addition, she loved Sudoku and other puzzles. Lenore was an extrovert and made many friends, especially at Sacred Heart Church in Mt. Holly, NJ. Lenore was frequently seen chatting with church members before and after Mass. She was also part of an online Bible study.

She spent her last days at the Wynwood Rehab and Healthcare Center and expressed her sincere gratitude for the wonderful care of the Doctors, Nurses and Staff.

Heaven has indeed gained another angel!

Her Celebration of Life will be held at Sacred Heart Church, 260 High Street, Mt. Holly, NJ 08060 on Saturday, April 25, 2026. Friends and relatives are invited to attend her Visitation from 11-11:30am, followed by Funeral Liturgy at 11:30am at Sacred Heart Church.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory to: Deborah Heart and Lung Center

200 Trenton Rd.

“ Lenore was my neighbour and very dear friend, I met her in church and we became fast friends and eventually realized we lived two buildings away from each other in Whitehall apartments. I loved going over to spend the afternoon with her making jewelry or doing crochet, sometimes we would just read the Bible and say a rosary. Every time I came over she would have something for us to eat. I'll never forget her Italian pasta salad she made, or the brownies with peanut butter cream and pretzels dipped in chocolate. She loved Friendlys coffee ice cream, she loved to decorate, her apartment always reflected what time of year it was, she loved Jesus and she taught me a lot about the Bible. She was a very special friend to me, she was truly one of a kind. It's going to be hard going on without her but I know she's in a place of eternal peace and I miss her now but I will see her again when Jesus comes to take us home.

“*Lenore was the first person from Sacred Heart Church to become my friend as we attended bible study. We both enjoyed sumo on tv and we traveled to the Blue Shrine of our lady in NJ and the Francis House of prayer together. I visited her six days before she died and she was such a lovely person and I was blessed to know her.

“ I just heard of Lenore’s passing at church today. I was fortunate to have met her while working at Deborah and then see her at Sacred Heart. She was a wonderful person and an amazing nurse. I found her to have such a wealth of knowledge and wisdom and so supportive in the most difficult of situations. All of this while grieving the loss of her son. Praying that she is now resting with the angels. Sending deepest condolences to her friends and family.

“ From part-time nursing colleagues, to full-time nursing colleagues, to friends, to M-F everyday Bible Study Classmates, if I know my friend, she's doing a full assessment of Heaven right now. And, she's asking Jesus some of the questions that she couldn't get answers to during her lifetime here on earth. Rest in HIS loving arms my friend. Your crowns await you ❤️. In The Mighty Name of Jesus. Amen 🙏🕊️📖👑 Love, Kathy H
