“ Dear Sullivan Family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ Lee you were an important part of my life, as I sit here going through pictures to find the ones of you, I can hear your voice, it's So fresh in my mind. I glad that the last conversation I had with you was one that was a proud time for you, as you just bought your house, and how happy you were.. I was so proud of you, and you promised you would call me to come see it within a couple of weeks after you moved in. I want you to know I seen your house yesterday although not the way I had expected to see it, as we went there to get paperwork to lay you to rest..It was overwhelmingly..you were a awesome guy for the things you did for the people you care about..i will always miss you, and never forget you..love you much..heaven has just gained a new angel...we will still carry you in our hearts, and keep our memories of you always

“ I will never forget how you would walking into a room and make everyone smile and laugh. You always knew what to say to help your friends get through the worst of times and you were there to celebrate the best as well. Its a blessing to have known such a wonderful,caring and selfless person I know you are making others smile in heaven. Miss you and may God bring peace to the family during this time
