What can I say....i am the organized, self sufficient, independent, reliable business owning person I am today because of you!! ☐

You taught me how everything I needed to know to take care of myself in this crazy world!!

You were a dedicated hard worker who gave us everything we needed and a little of what we wanted...such good balance!!

Memories, chasing us on motorcycle, softball, riding in the back of truck to go to Lucky 7, giving my boyfriends the low down, player pianos, going with you when you opened up the Phillie Phanatic games with your Calliope, many games of Dominos, Helping me purchase my 1st house, New Hope train ride with Bob and many many more!!!

It was an “Honor” and “Privilege” to be able to spend the last almost 7 weeks of your life with you!!

Love you Daddy!! ❤️☐🙏

“ Les so many years together, the best years of my life. Many great memories our train trips, our rides in the car, our shore trips. Family outings with family. our dinners and just dancing with you. I will always cherish these memories. I miss you so much. I will use these memories to get me thru, until you meet me with our lord.

“Dad, I thank you for all that you did for me, as a child and as an adult. By allowing me to have horses as a child that has blossomed into a life long love affair that is still going strong today. To showing me that hard work and dedication really does pay off. To helping me get my first car. To answering questions about a multitude of things and much more. Rest in piece. I love you Dad. Love Leslie, aka Peffy or Weppy

“ Although our relationship has been broken for many years, I am thankful to the LORD for the father He chose for me on this earth. My dad taught me the value of responsibility, an organized and orderly environment, always being on time, persevering through difficulties, and many other things. I always had a roof over my head, food for my stomach, clothes on my back, and many extras such as horses, roller skates, and singing lessons. He would untangle my necklaces when they were all knotted together and take me to Roy Rogers for lunch. I love you, Dad, and thank you for all you did for me and gave to me.

“ Aww Daddy I love you & miss you so much already! TY for all you did for me over the years. ☐ I have so many good early memories of going on outings with you, collecting baseball/Star Wars/Superman and Pac-Man cards in the early 80s along with playing pinball, Atari, and badminton. I remember helping you in your piano shop, talking on the CB radio with you, telling jokes to each other & some of our deeper conversations. And then there's the adult memories that are just as special- from your visit to us here in GA in 2024 to even the painful ones over the past two months as you were preparing to meet your Lord. You were such a special & unique dad. I thank God for you, Pop, & will see you again in Father God's timing. John 3:17
