“ Bowman family, We would like to say how very sorry we are for your loss. We loved Ms. B very much. She watched us grow from little kindergarten children to adults. She was right there with my mother as each one of us had our children. When my Mom got sick she faithfully visited my mother weekly and when my Mom passed checked up on all us to make sure we were ok. To know her is to love her and she was loved by our family. Take comfort that her pain and suffering is gone. She is reunited with her Lord and savior and in his Glory. And right now she is probably having coffee with Franny. Again our prayers for God's comfort##imported-begin##Noreen McDowell (Fran Woodbury's daughter)##imported-end##

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Your Mom was such a wonderful person. I always got such a kick out of her tell it like it is attitude!! When I would stop by and see her she always had something going on but always took the time to sit and chat. She loved her family, especially her grandchildren which she always bragged about. She will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Jennifer & Jack Grimm##imported-end##
