“ Terri and Sandy,

I'm so sorry you are having to go through this. When I think of your mother, I think about how she always made a special effort to see me whenever I came up to visit and I thought that was just so sweet. She was always welcoming and inviting. I always enjoyed her stories and her willingness to share her thoughts on any subject. Her love and respect for you girls was evident in by the way she looked at you and the stories she told of each of you. The only thing she loved more were her grandchildren - be they blood related or marriage related - you would never know because she loved them all so much and the joy she got from great-grandchildren was something special. I know this is hard on the grandchildren but they were so lucky to have her for as long as they did. Really sorry I will not be there tomorrow for the service because I'm sure it will be special but I do look forward to seeing you, Terri, in a couple of weeks.
