“ Linda was my friend who knew me when I was a child. She knew my grandparents and I knew her Mum Mum and Nanna. She could back up my stories that my childhood basement really was painted seafoam green and my living room had a patchwork carpet. Linda's steadfast friendship has been a constant all my life. I rejoice at the life and love she has shared and cry that we did not have more time. To John, Robin, Tom, Hannah, & Evan, all my love.
