“ To Frank, Dana and Lauren,

I am sad to hear of this news, you have been in my prayers regularly since I have met you. My short visits with you let me know how great a person Lisa was and I know what a hole she leaves in your hearts but what a great legacy she has left behind with her girls and fond memories. Her light is only slightly dimmed here because of your good spirit to keep her memories alive. May our prayers for comfort give you peace,
