“ It was a pleasure to know Lisa she was one to be tender hearted loved having fun and enjoyed her grandson, Christopher. She always let you know where you stand but would never intentionally hurt anyones feelings. If she thought she had, it would hurt her more. That is the kind of person she was. A woman who loved God and quick to pray when it was needed, she will be so missed, But I know she is in the arms of her savior and that is a better place.##imported-begin##Darlene Guinn##imported-end##

“ Lisa was one of the most generous, caring and loving people you would ever want to know. I am so glad that she came into my life and filled it with her humor and caring attitude. Lisa always has an encouraging word for everyone, even if she was down herself that day. Lisa you will be greatly missed by everyone at Lost Lake that knew you. Keeping you in my memory now and always cheryl##imported-begin##cheryl wertenberger##imported-end##
