“ My dearest father, You were the best dad any could have. My heart has been shattered when God called you away, but you will always live on in my memories. No Dad could match your love, compassion, courage, and comfort. You always protected me and were always there for me any time I needed help. You were very kind and considerate and showed me the world and encouraged my interests. No one was luckier than me to have you as a father. You taught me and showed me everything you could. You were the world's best dad and the few, the proud, the marine. I will always love you and although we are apart, separated by time and space, the heart will live on. Love always and forever, your daughter,
