

Louis John Potter

December 2, 1940 - October 19, 2022

Louis John Potter (“Lou”) of Medford Lakes, NJ passed away on October 19, 2022. Lou was a long standing resident of Medford Lakes know by many as “Uncle Lou”, a name given to him by his niece Macy and Morgan Kemble. With a passion for volunteering within the community, Lou was known most recently withing the community for his service as a crossing guard. Lou also served as an EMT on the Hampton Lakes Emergency Squad and received the Captains Citation for Meritorious Service in 2004.

Lou was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on December 2nd, 1940, where he served as an employee for the Pennsylvania Railroad and Conrail until his retirement.

Lou is survived by his family Walter, Carolyn, Macy, and Morgan Kemble and his cat Shadow, whom he loved deeply.

Lou was a kind and generous man who gave back to his community as well as to numerous charities, both local and global. Lou was a deeply religious man, having spent his early years studying under numerous Catholic Bishops and Priests within Philadelphia.

On lieu of flowers please consider donating to a local charity in honor of Uncle Lou. His favorite was the Animal Welfare Association where he adopted his cat Shadow. <https://support.awanj.org/donate-now>.

Service details will be shared at a later date.
