“ To The Family of Courtland Lynda S. Grovatt,

My deepest sympathy goes out to your family. Losing someone you love in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. The Bible is able to speak consolingly to those who are experiencing grief and its promises are faithful and true. Psalms 55:22 say “throw your burden on God, and he will sustain you....”. This Scripture makes it clear, that no matter what we are facing God is there to help us get through it. I pray the love of God enfolds you during your journey through the grief process. My hope is that the Bible’s promise bring you a measure of comfort during this difficult time and may the outpouring of love surrounding you, comfort you.

*Sincerely
Gladys*

“ Wayne, our deepest condolences to you and your family. Lynda will always be remembered as a genuinely nice and kind person. She was truly beloved by her CSC family. No matter how hectic things were, Lynda was never too busy to lend a hand, offer encouragement or share a great story with us. I will remember her varied and wide ranging interests which I really enjoyed discussing with her especially; Fords vs Chevys, "The Cushmans", Philly sports, Sons of Anarchy, Fantasy Football and of course, Disney World ! May she rest in peace, and may you find some comfort knowing her spirit will live on in the hearts of all those who were fortunate enough to have known her. Bernie & Karen Schultz
