Born in Lindenwold, NJ; Mabel grew up in the Magnolia area and was a longtime Hainesport resident. She was a very active member of her church through the years where she taught Sunday School, helped to run the Missionettes, volunteered with Vacation Bible School and the aftercare at the church school. Mabel had a special love for the senior citizen group, the “Beacons”, in both churches and generously ministered to all in need. She was a beautiful and kind soul and her legacy lives on through her children, grandchildren, and everyone she ministered to over the years. Mabel was a cub scout leader and a Brownie troop leader. Her love for Nascar was unbearable and she was an avid reader and enjoyed crafting and crocheting. She was a homemaker who loved to babysit her grandchildren.
