“ Malachi grey had such a profound impact on me. He made us laugh until we hysterically cried, he introduced me to so much music and so many different ways of thinking. he walked to the beat of his own drum and he cared deeply about others. He kept the magic inside of him that many of us lose as we get older. I will miss him always. The world is darker without you Malachi. I hope you're partying with the rock gods in the next life
