Margret Eigo of Westampton passed away Saturday morning at Samaritan Hospice Inpatient Unit in Mt. Holly. She was 84.

Since her retirement, Margret enjoyed cooking, reading, knitting, growing her cooking herbs, and doing puzzles, and ceramics. And she loved to go to bingo at the Shriner's Hall.

The wife of the late James, and mother of the late David, she is survived by her daughter, Trish, and her beloved poodle, Frodo, both of Westampton; two brothers: Lothar and Manfred both of Germany. She was the sister of the late Karl-Heinz and Herta.

“ Dear Elgo Family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
