“ Zia Maria, May God Bless you. I have so many memories that I don't know where to begin. All those Family dinners and holidays. Week in the summer to get me out of Brooklyn. I loved that and will always remember spending time with you my uncle cousins the parrot who you got to say my name. I have so many memories going back 55years

I would like to share one memory. You gave me my first first sweater one Christmas. I must have been around 14. My reaction was " a sweater:(." I didn't want a sweater. What I didn't realize then is that you gave me my love for a good sweater. The sweater was gray with sort of a square spot design all over it. Blue Red Black square dot. I loved that sweater If I could still fit in it I would still be wearing it. LOL So now I have a dresser full of sweaters that I can even wear them all but when I do I'll thinking of you.

I will carry my thoughts with. You will be missed. Love Peppe

“ Some of my earliest childhood memories include my Uncle Frank, Aunt Maria and my cousins. Aunt Maria always had a big smile for me and big hug. Later in life, that smile and hug were given with the same warmth and love.

I am comforted by those memories while feeling a deep sorrow for her family for their loss.

I pray for them in their grief, but hope that they can be comforted knowing that Aunt Maria impacted so many lives in such a positive way.

*God bless her always.

My childhood memories of holidays spent with our Uncle Francesco and Aunt Maria and cousins remain a childhood joy in my heart. They were my favorite relatives to visit as our time together was always light hearted and welcoming. Our big table was filled with happy conversations and incredible food prepared by these masters. Now my cousins and I face these times of aging parents whom we absolutely love. How blessed we are for their incredible traditions instilled in us and their priceless love. I pray my cousins find comfort in these riches and grateful they are our blessings to fill us evermore. God bless Aunt Maria in her Heavenly home for all of eternity. - Adriana
