“ Mario, I wish I could have been there for you like I was before. When I met you in 1996 I always thought we would be friends, but life had different plans for both of us. When you told me that you were having a child and couldn't believe it, I was stunned and later I was happy for you. When you were meeting Malia's parents for the first time I remember you calling me freaking out that you weren't good enough...I wish that you had known you were good enough. I wish you could have beaten the demon that has claimed a large percentage of my friends. If somehow you can see from where you are, know you were always loved. Thank you for the good things you brought to my life and lets forget the rest.

Thanks for being such a great friend and companion. I know I only knew you for a slight amount of time, but that was still enough to develop a great friendship with you. You will be missed.

“ Dear dad,

Although we have been apart these past few years, the love has always been there. It made us smile when you would call and although your grandson will never know you, your spirit and memory shall live on with much love. You will be missed terribly.

“ *Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all are meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay....
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord*

We will miss your big hugs, infectious smile and of course..... Your stories!

Until we meet again... We love and miss you. Kay & Jim
