“ I am so sorry to hear this sad news...Marjorie served on our Business Advisory Council for the Project SEARCH Program at Jefferson - New Jersey, helping young adults with disabilities to learn work skills and find meaningful employment. She will be sorely missed. My condolences to all of Margie's family. I've known her professionally for almost 15 years and admired her uplifting spirit!

“ Margie lit up the room no matter what the circumstances. A beautiful lady, inside and out and such a warm, loving heart. To know her was to love her, always.

Love and prayers to her family and Gary,

“ Remembering Marjorie: An incredibly classy, joyful woman who will be remembered for her warmth, caring & giving nature, love of life and family. She was the epitome of a lady and fashionista. Valentine’s Day will affectionately be known as “Marjorie HEart” day.

For her family, she would beam with pride as she spoke of each of you. She loved all of you so much. Gary, thank you for bringing back the twinkle in her eyes again. May you honor her memory by remembering to dance (with the right shoes, of course) and always caring for each other.
