“ God has taken one of the few "beautiful Ladies" left in this world, to be with him where there is only happiness and no more pain. A small Lady in stature but with a heart larger than anything you can imagine. Always caring, sincere, giving and a friend to the very end. We loved more than anything was the smile and a twinkle in her eye, no matter what the situation presented. She will be surely missed but NEVER forgotten. Our prayers and thoughts to Sue and Sally and their families. Bless you all.

“ To all of the Traver family,

My deepest sympathy for one great Lady. Miss Margie was one of my favorite patrons. After 23 yrs. together we did more than hair on Thursday morning. All the girls had wonderful chats about our familys, who was getting married, having a baby, buying a house or going on vacation. Then there were the days filled with tears and hugs because someone was ill or a lose of someone we loved. Most times our chats were about nothing important just fun and filled with laughter.

I feel I know you all because she talked about you and loved you so much and took every opportunity to tell us how wonderful her children and their spouses and OMG the grandchildren, her pride and joy, put a smile on her face every time.

Miss Margie loved life but most of all she loved her life. God bless you all and know that she will be missed by me and "the girls" at the beauty shop.

*With love,
Hairdresser and Friend,
Dee*

“ Marge was such a sweet woman who raised a wonderful family! Our families have been friends as far back as I can remember -- great times with dinners, watching the trains sets in the basement, Westwood, RV, Duck, and so much more.

When I was pregnant with my first child, Marge graciously gifted me with a small wooden rocking chair from your house that I favored as a child. My children loving used that chair when they were little, and you can be sure it will be passed onto the next generation of my family. And when it does, so will the story of how that chair was graciously given by such a loving person.

Your Mom's beautiful spirit will live on in all of us.

*With love and sympathy,

*God will love her smile as I did, She was very special to be around, and I know how special she was to my neighbor, Iris. I had never met anyone so loving and kind as Marge. My prayers are with Sue, Sally and her friends..
