“ Michael W. Barrows Uncle to Mark wanted to let his family know how sorry he was to hear of his passing. Uncle Mike will remember the times Mark and Rebecca had come to Kentucky for a visit. He really enjoyed talking with him and hearing about his journeys. Mark will be missed.

“ I was the youngest of the cousin's on the Barrows side until Peter was born. I think I was about 2 or 3 when he, David, Aunt Jane and Uncle Leroy came to visit in California. My dad had a movie camera in which he took pictures of the family. We would watch these films a lot through out the years. Then years later we went to New Jersey but the cousin's were older and were busy with school activities. I heard about all their adventures through out the years. As a Christian myself I was overjoyed when I heard Mark had accepted the Lord as his Savior. I heard of several Missions he went on. I am sure God will let him rest then enlighten him the joys of Heaven. God bless his family.
