Jesus said, "I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die" (John 11:25)

As we mourn the loss of Pop, we find comfort in the memories we had with him. We are thankful in knowing he is in heaven with our Heavenly Father looking down on us.

You are in our thoughts & prayers for continued strength & comfort.##imported-begin##Andrea, Dave, Kyle & Ashley##imported-end##

“ Pop, we'll miss you everyday.
In life we loved you dearly In death we do the same.It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.For part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide. And though we cannot see you, your always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one, Our chain will link again. All of my heart and love##imported-begin##Heather, Chris & Russell##imported-end##

“ Dear Kay and family,

We know how difficult these past weeks have been for you and that you have much to go through in the weeks ahead. We know how much you will miss Marty and how many tears have been and will be shed by all of you. But we're thankful that you can weep unlike those who have no hope. We are so thankful that Marty came to trust in the Savior whom we are confident has ushered him into a place far better than that which we know here. We are so thankful also that the Lord gave you opportunity to minister to him and care for him in his final days. Bless all of you. We'll be continuing to come boldly to the throne of grace in your behalf.##imported-begin##Chuck and Maxine##imported-end##

“ Pop Pop,

We will miss you here in our lives, however, your memory will live on in our hearts forever. You will always be in our thoughts and prayers. And I trust will be seeing you again.

"In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also." - John 14:2-3##imported-begin##Jessica Johnson ##imported-end##

“ Dear Kay,

The hearts of the people of God at Covenant Baptist share your sorrow at this time. But we know that it is not all sorrow, because your dear husband was drawn to Christ by His grace and power in a wonderful way. What a gift that was, and it was on your birthday - the best birthday present you ever had. I am thankful to God to have had the privilege of witnessing his conversion and entrance into the kingdom of light and life and the love of Christ. So while we will feel the void of his presence with us and the hope that we had of having him for a little longer and watching him grow in his new faith, we will just have to settle for the even more wonderful thought of his growing in eternal worship before the glorious throne of God in heaven where he will learn more than we can learn in our lifetime. And someday you will be united with him in the kingdom of God. May God be pleased to bring your family members along while they still have the opportunity to respond to the gracious call of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in thi life. With love, Pastor & Wendy Reuther##imported-begin##John Reuther##imported-end##

“ Kay,
We do count it a privilege to have met and spent time with Marty and your family over the past months. We grieve with you and pray that the Lord continue to be your sustenance and that you will find your comfort and consolations in Him, especially in the days ahead. We love you. "When my anxious thoughts multiply within me, Your consolations delight my soul." Psalm 94:19##imported-begin##Sally Whartenby##imported-end##

“ Dad,
You are loved and will never be forgotten. God has called you, redeemed you, and has received you, now we all praise Him.

As we await His return and the fulfillment of all promises, may we "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity". (2 Peter 3:18) Amen##imported-begin##Anita & Dave##imported-end##
