“ I offer my sincerest sympathies to all the family members. Uncle Sam - I love you and I know God will help you through this. She is my aunt. I say "is" because though she may not be here physically, but no one can separate the blood ties and she is in my heart always. A wonderful woman this Aunt Martha of mine. I'm so thankful God chose to place her in my family. We lived next door to each other for more than 50 years. When my parents died, she and my uncle became like my mom and dad. I received good advice, watch care, and selfless sharing. She would take the plants that I had and help me keep them alive as I do not have a green thumb. I'm so thankful I will see her again someday because she made the personal decision to ask Jesus into her heart and life. She served him daily by living in a loving and caring manner. I know he gave her comfort as she went through each hard thing in her life -- because she told me He did. She is a role model and I believe that she impacted my life in a great way. She will always stay in my heart as my dearest Aunt Mart. One who I could turn to with anything I had, someone who prayed for me, someone who loved me dearly with no conditions attached. This is "so long, dear one" from this earth, but not good-bye for I will see you again someday in Heaven. Until then my mind and heart will keep you with me.

*My Dearest Martha (Grandmother)
29 years ago you came into my life and even though I wasn't your biological grand daughter you welcomed my Mother and I with open arms and you gave us joy, comfort, happiness, strength and more than anything you gave us love. You are truly missed and loved so deeply by so many and I can honestly say "Heaven has a true angel" Until we meet again my dearest grandmother I will always cherish the memories we all shared and you are in my heart & soul. I hope and pray that you are reunited with my Grandfather and you two can take care of one another now, Rest in peace for eternity. I love you!*

“ My deepest sympathy to the entire "Paul Family". Martha and Sam were my neighbors in Acacia but they were also my friends..Martha was a kind,gentle person and I loved my time spent with her. She loved her garden there and planted beautiful azallia bushes for all to enjoy. I will miss her dearly but she left a wonderful legacy for all who knew her. Rest in Peace my friend!
