“ I will always carry some of Fran with me in life. She showed us to be resilient and tough. I'll always remember the many many days and nights spent at her house as a kid having fun and sitting with her on the swing in the front yard. The yard sales and trips to Columbus market were always a highlight. This was a hard loss and she will be dearly missed. - james

I loved Fran. She was so much fun. I know how much she missed her sister Dot and my husband James. Fran was my husband cousin. We always joking about her being on the train. Now Fran I guess you can get off that train. Love you Fran.
