“ I have thought about what to write to honor by dear friend for hours , Mary and I meet 16 years ago , we started as coworkers but it didn't take long before we became friends. Mary was caring, funny, always spoke her mind (which I love about her) her husband, daughters grandchildren and family were the soul of her heart ! We spent countless times talking and laughing if it was having breakfast at the diner, bus trips together for our schools, liberty lakes sweating in the summer,, her and Danny visiting me and Ray at our home (helping me put some dam reindeers together at Christmas) jewelry party with Sharon and Andi ! Her laughing when Kelly wanted to ride with Ms Gail. Leaning on each other during hard times ! I will forever miss my dear friend ! My love and prayers go out to her family ! Rest In Peace with your sister! Till we meet again I love you!

“ Dear Kumble Family ,
We are so very sorry for your loss. We have alot of happy memories of fun times shared with Mary and your family, from bowling and so many picnics and birthday parties together. She was a very hard working woman who loved her family. She will be dearly missed. May you find comfort in your memories and knowing that she is reunited with her beloved sister Sharon. Your family are in our thoughts and in our hearts. ❤️🌸
