“ My most heartfelt condolences go out to the Parker family. As a teenager I would often stop by her house to visit with her daughter, Kathy, she was always very nice to me. I hope in time the pain of losing her will be replaced by the warm and happy feelings brought on by fond memories of special moments spent together. ~ Salli Coates Greiner

Thank you so much for your kind words during this difficult time. She was my best friend. I loved her so much. Doesn't seem real.

“ Mary was an absolute angel. Whenever I was in her presence, I felt that I was in the presence of a divine light. Just being with her was healing and inspirational. She personified courage, dignity and grace. I don't have to wonder if she is in heaven because she was heaven and heaven was her. Martin Perrotta.

“ A man couldn't ask for a better mother-in-law and as for good memories, holidays, Sunday dinners, vacations at the shore, too many to write down. God bless you Mom and thank you.
