

Mary Jane Parker

June 13, 1929 - April 18, 2020

Mary Jane was the 3rd child of 7 children born to Harry and Gladys Steele in Philadelphia, PA. She was a devoted wife and mother of 3 children, Diane Harrington, James D. Parker, and Judith Yaremko and her grandson Sean Harrington and his wife Bree.

Her love of cooking was a favorite passion and hosting holiday gatherings for friends and family. She loved to sing, dance, and enjoyed all kinds of genres of music. Her greatest love was the love for children. She will be remembered for her kind spirit, compassionate and empathic nature, but most of all, her love of life and people.

Memorial Gifts may be made in her honor to Serenity Hospice, 56 Georgetown Rd. Bordentown NJ 08505. A Memorial service will be held at a future date.

“ To Judi, Doug and Diane, my deepest condolences on your loss. I remember Jane so well from my days on Edgemont Lane. She was the coolest Mom ever. Friendly, hospitable, caring and always had a smile. Just like your Dad. Can't ask for better neighbors than that. May she be in a better place. May she Rest In Peace.
