Dear Melissa, we spent two intensive months together in the women's group, and we formed strong bonds. You were part of my healing process and I will never forget the purity of your smile, how clean and well groomed you presented yourself, the cheeky twinkle in your eyes. First there was disbelief of your passing, the constant searching and questioning in my mind, trying to make sense of it all, the anger at you leaving us, the growing acceptance of what is. Radical Acceptance was one of the practices we learned, and now I must put it to use, to implement it. As it is said "God grant me the ability to accept the things I cannot change...". I pray that God embraces you with his love and forgiveness because He is the most gracious, the most merciful. I will never forget you and may you find peace from the rocky road of life.
