“ Michael, I just heard about you and your brother both and I just wanted to say thank you before I say goodbye. We were only family for a short few years but you were unbelievably sweet and patient with me during that time. I tried to find you a great many times over the years but didn't have any luck. For that, I am sorry. I wish I had gotten to know you better. Your nieces and nephew are all doing very well and I think you'd be quite proud of them (and your brother for making them) Rest in Peace Michael. Save a spot for me up there

“ While Michael's life took a wrong turn, until it did he was a hard working, thriving business owner, husband and loving caring father to his daughter and autistic son. And he was a friend to all who came into his shop. This obituary dies a disservice to the man he was. I will miss him as I hope will many others.
