“ Just discovered Michael passed. I used to be a home aide for him. We loved doing puzzles together, telling each other funny stories, and watching Maury or shows similar. He was such a funny and loving person. One of my favorite people that I got to care for. I am so sad. She's quite a few years when I found out he passed. I loved seeing how much Peggy and him loved one another as well, and when his family would come visit you could really feel the love from everyone. What started as me helping Michael turned into a beautiful friendship and support as I'd tell them my "tea" with funny stories or drama going on in my personal life. I will Always look back and smile at the sweet memories we've shared. Especially when he would accomplish something small with his health, and is sing him the rocky song. We'd laugh to tears. Miss you. Love you. Hoping you're watching over me.
