“Michelle was an amazing woman that will be thoroughly missed both as a colleague and as a person. It is entirely incomprehensible to us to use the word “was” next to her name.

We have worked with Michelle for several years in a client capacity. Her work was impeccable – timely and thorough; it seemed that no matter the volume, she could handle it without a complaint. Those of us working with her closely often marveled at her ability to handle it all. We thought she was the strong, type A superwoman, but were surprised and delighted when, upon meeting, learned how sweet and gentle she really was. A true modern woman.

Michelle shared the poignant story of her grandmother fighting the odds and surviving the WWII and the indomitable spirit of that young woman which sustained her and which she hoped to impart to the future generations. Her eyes lit up when she was talking about her little one and it was very heartwarming to hear how proud she was of her older son’s achievements. We know they will make her proud.

It was a privilege to have known Michelle. We are heartbroken. Please accept our warmest condolences.

Most sincerely, Lana Leor, Anita Boyd, Brian Kestenbaum, Edgar Vargas and numerous colleagues at LEAF

“ My very best friend, aunt, second mama, my go-to, I miss you already, I miss your daily text checking on me every morning, the “hey baby girl, just checking, how did you sleep last night?” You have made me strong & independent. Sometimes things do not make sense, and this sure doesn’t, but I know that you will be watching over us all, I know you’ll be cheering me on like crazy when i graduate, and I promise I will make you proud. Thank you for giving me memories to last a life time, I love you more than anything, forever & always your baby girl
