“ *My sincere condolences to Miriam's family.
I work at Brookdale Florence (as a activities assistant) and I really enjoyed getting to know Miriam when she was a resident there. Miriam always had a great attitude and participated in many of the activities that we offer. Sing-a-longs, journaling, games, singing hymns, daily exercises, open discussions - even bowling in the living room (she was so happy when she won a game that had about 10 players), Miriam was right there. Very often, she and I would and simply talk about the 'old days' and she loved to chat about her family. One time she told me about a cassette of her singing and we played it for the crowd. She had a wonderful voice. What I am saying is that Miriam loved life and her enthusiasm was a blessing. I wil always remember her.
I am also a Roman Catholic deacon and I preside at communion services on Sundays at Brookdale and Miriam, though not a Catholic, always enjoyed participating.*

*May Miriam rest in peace and may the angels welcome her Home.
