Dear Uncle,

You are a most loving and giving soul. Your friendly calls and remembrances will forever remain in our hearts. You have been in my prayers daily for years as you suffered through your failing health. And therefore even today it is as if you are near and close. Love you, uncle. And, what a rock of support you have had in Charuben. May God bless her for her tender loving care that never let you out of her sight. May the full family be blessed for all the goodness in the two of you. Until we meet again.....
