“ My parents were good friends with the Sage family and their trucking business like my parents had too. We all grew up together in Hainesport and they would come to our house for our parents to just sit at the kitchen table and drink coffee while we all played. Nancy was the sweetest lady and when you talked to her she always had a smile. She will sadly be missed by so many people. May she Rest In Peace and suffer no more. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.
